

Built to Last: Realizing the Completion of the "Quest" ...

One Brick at a Time

Your brick will be placed in the arched entryway to the cultural/recreational center.

"There are many successful business and professional people here tonight, and if you haven't contributed yet, please join us to help the foundation get the project off the ground. The success of any business is you have to contribute back to the community."

—Bill Wong, on behalf of the Bel Air Wong Family, donors of $1 million and naming rights to the building fund.

"We are hopeful for your support of what will become a culturally diverse facility that will provide the positive role models and experiences needed to prepare our newest generation of children for leadership and community involvement."

—Congressmen Robert T. Matsui and Doug Ose, sponsors of the Federal funding grant for SASF.

You can make your contribution in several ways: through a single payment of $1000 by check or by credit card, or in three, four, or 12 equal installments by checking account debit. A Visionary Brick form is printed on the reverse side of this page.
